K. BRYAN, Agent.

The steamer Faunie Freese has laid up at the city wharf on account of ice in the river.

A meeting of our charitable citizens was held at the Court House Wednesday afternoon and steps taken to raise funds to relieve the suffering among the poor of this city.

Messrs. John Grigg and Lee Bridges were out hunting near Wigington, in this county, on the 25th of December, when the gun of Grigg was accidentally discharged, the charge taking effect in the right jaw and killing him instantly.

The frescoing of the walls and ceiling of the Presbyterian Church has been completed and is a beautiful piece of work. The handsome chandelier has arrived and has been put up, and the other improvements are going forward rapidly. It is expected that it will be ready for occupancy in a few days.

Owing to the continued cold and disagreeable weather the ceremonies of laying the cornerstone of the Government Building were postponed indefinitely on Monday. The Lexington Advertiser of Monday afternoon says they went on all the same, and tells all about what took place.

While Messrs. Ed. Oliver and Willis Wayts were at work upon the stage at the Opera House Tuesday afternoon they fell from the elevator to the stage, a distance of about fifteen feet. Oliver was so badly bruised up that he had to be carried to his home in South Frankfort, but Wayts escaped injury.

Benjamin Bryan, colored, was arrested by Officer Hyde on the charge of stealing Senator Williams' shoes Wednesday night. Several distinguished white gentlemen have been busily engaged in trying to get away with the Honorable Senator's shoes for some time, but as yet have not been as lucky as the colored brother.

The Boston Concert Company gave a first class entertainment in ever particular at the Opera House Tuesday evening. The audience was not large, but select, and gave evidence of their keen enjoyment of the music by cheering nearly every piece. The music was just splendid, especially the singing of Mrs. Humphrey-Allen and of the Temple Quartette.

A colored man by the name of Richard Pleasant, employed upon the farm of Mr. Wm. Moore, father-in-law of Mr. J. M. Wakefield, who resides on the old Scenic place, two miles above the city, fell dead Monday morning while cutting wood. The remains were brought to this city, and an inquest held, when a verdict of death from heart disease was returned.

While seated by the fire at the residence of her son, Mr. Dan Callaghan, hatter-in-chief at the depot, Mrs. Johanna Callaghan, an old lady nearly ninety years of age, was so unfortunate as to have her clothing take fire and burn her very badly about one arm and the side of her face. She died from her injuries Sunday morning, and her funeral took place from the Catholic Church Tuesday morning.

Henry Williams, an old colored man, better known as "shoo gunt," was found dead upon the floor of one of the rooms in a frame house opposite the gas works. He had no fire and no furniture whatever in the room, his bed being a lot of rags placed on the floor. It is supposed he was frozen to death. An inquest was held upon the body Monday morning when a verdict of death from exposure to cold was returned.

Mr. George B. Macklin has forty ears of clean coal, free from slack, snow and ice, just ready for use, which he is selling at the lowest noted.

We are requested by Mr. E. P. Bryan to say that he has no idea of going into the coal business, and the report that he would in a short time engage in that business was entirely a mistake.

Frederick Wurde, the young tragedian with whom our amusement loving public were so much pleased two years ago, will again appear in this city on the 13th, 14th and 15th of February.

The United States District Court is in session at the Court House in this city several days the first of the week, and a number of cases were disposed of, none however of very great interest to the public generally.

The City Council on Wednesday settled with Messrs. Haly Bros., the contractors on the new City Hall, and received the building from them. The City Clerk's office, Council Chamber and Police Court room will be occupied in a few days.

Miss Jennie Keeton, second daughter of the late Edgar Keeton, formerly of this city, was married at the residence of her mother, in Covington, last week to Mr. John Will Penn, a Bourbon county farmer. The groom is 40 years of age and this is his third marriage.

United States Marshall A. J. Auxier has appointed Mr. Con. McMurtry, of this city, one of his deputies. The "Colonel" will make his headquarters in this city and will always be ready to serve papers for those of our attorneys have business in the United States Circuit.

Sunday evening quite a serious fire took place at the residence of Mr. E. L. Meagher. By some means a spark got into a wardrobe and set fire to some clothing, damaging the wardrobe and contents to the amount of one hundred and fifty dollars. Fully insured. The flames were extinguished without calling on the Fire Department.

It is useless to undertake to heat the Opera House with the furnace that is now in it, as it is a failure. The people will not go to the hall on account of its being so poorly heated and the lesson is losing money. Take it out at once and put in steam stoves or some other heating apparatus that will make the audience comfortable while witnessing a performance. The seats will never be filled with a good audience so long as the hall is so uncomfortable.

The weather for the past week has been fearfully unpleasant. On Saturday of last week the mercury dropped down to twenty degrees below zero, and continued in that vicinity for several days, snow fell to the depth of eight inches, and to make matters worse on Thursday morning the weather moderated and rain began to fall, causing the streets to become so slippery that walking was dangerous. Thursday night it turned cold again and snowed.

Mr. Austin J. Kendall, a well known citizen of this city, died at his home on Broadway Tuesday afternoon, about one o'clock, with consumption. For the past twenty years he has been foreman of the Youngs' brewery, and although he had been in failing health for some time, was able to attend to his business until a few weeks since, when he was taken worse and never left his room afterwards. The remains were taken to Louisville Wednesday morning for interment, escorted by a detachment of Frankfort Commandery, No. 4. The funeral took place Thursday morning and was largely attended.

Lost or Strayed.—Two male cows, one red and one white, left the premises of Mrs. Lucy Conner, in Bell Point, Sunday morning and have not since been seen or heard from. Any information left at this office which will enable her to get them will be thankfully received.

Don't make the mistake of doctoring liver and kidneys to cure consumption. It will not only all other remedies aside and out your trust in Dr. Wist's fiduciary of Wild Cherry, it will surely benefit you. Try it for coughs and colds, and see what an excellent remedy it is.

Buy a tent from Joe LeCompte.

For Rent.—Two office rooms on the lower floor. Apply to Judge Daval.

First class board wanted by a quiet gentleman and wife, in a private family of refinement and where there are no boarders. Location central, best references. Address "A," care of this office.

Go to Howard Bro's for fine carmels and pure homemade candies north end street.

For Fruits, Cakes and Confections, go to Howard Bro's, north end St Clair street bridge.

BOARDING.—A few boarders by the day week or month. Wanted by Mrs. R. B. Mc Kee, at LeCompte house, near Iron Bridge.

No one can be ill fit the blood is pure. You will find it will do you well. It has always been recognized by physicians as blood purifiers. Don't be humbugged by the advertisements of the many quack bitters, but occasionally use Dr. Guyott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla and you will live to a good age, free from all distress of mind and body. Many of our best citizens, who long suffered from bad blood induced by weak kidneys, indigestion, sores, nerves, etc., owe their recovery to the use of this remedy.

Choice Leaf Lardat C. W. Finch's. Satisfaction guaranteed.

1000 Large corn fed hogs wanted at C. W. Finch's, Frankfort, Ky.

C. W. Finch pays the highest price for hogs.

The people of Frankfort should patronize the new wholesale and retail coal firm of E. J. H. Told, for they have come to stay. Office at H. R. Williams' grocery, South-side, where Mr. Peter E. Told can always be found ready to wait on customers.

Cakes iced at Howard Bro's.

Many who long suffered from indigestible feelings of distress, lame back, aching joints, sores, swellings, weakness of the urinary and digestive organs, unnatural feelings of weariness, headache, nervousness, dependence, sleeplessness, disturbing dreams, partial insanity, etc., after doctoring liver, kidneys, nerves and brain, with the various nostrums, are now in full health, being nearly frightened to death by their alarming advertisements, quickly begin using Dr. Guyott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, and were agreeably surprised to quickly find themselves restored to perfect health. No other remedy equals it.
